

Introduced by Senator Calderon

February 23, 2007

An act relating to public accommodations.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 874, as introduced, Calderon. Public accommodations: access.

Existing law provides that all buildings, structures, sidewalks, curbs, and related facilities constructed in this state by the use of state, county, or municipal funds, or the funds of any political subdivision of the state shall be accessible to, and usable by, persons with disabilities and authorizes for the California Building Standards Commission to adopt regulations for this purpose.

This bill would declare the intent of the Legislature to enact legislation to increase and enhance accessibility to places of public accommodation by persons with disabilities and to clarify the rights and remedies of persons and entities in connection with an action related to the accessibility of a place of public accommodation.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature to enact
- 2 legislation to increase and enhance accessibility to places of public
- 3 accommodation by persons with disabilities and to clarify the rights
- 4 and remedies of persons and entities in connection with an action
- 5 related to the accessibility of a place of public accommodation.
